

Minutes of the Meeting of St. Ives Neighbourhood Plan Transport Group

Date: Wednesday 26th June 2013 at 7.00pm.

Venue: Chy-an-Gweal Chapel meeting room, Carbis Bay

Present: Alan Clegg (Vice Chairperson)

Tony Beavon

Matt Hayter

Ron Tulley

Derek Milton (Minute Secretary)

Apologies for Absence: Morag Robertson (Chairperson); Geoff Williamson

Declaration of Members Interests: None

General Comment: For the second time there was no formal agenda and in addition the door to the venue was locked. Thus the meeting was delayed until keys obtained.

Issue 1: Again the position of chairperson was debated with Alan Clegg being Chairperson and Matt Hayter Vice Chairperson but again the decision was deferred to the next meeting.

Issue 2: Traffic Congestion:

Following the meeting of the 21st May 2013 the ideas of Matt Hayter in respect of the centre of St. Ives were debated without a recommendation being made at its conclusion.

Issue 3: Road Show:

This was debated and it was decided that Tony Beavon continues researching this.

Issue 4: Communication:

Geoff Williamson to seek further help in contacting the transport sector including transport companies.

Issue 5: Meeting Venues and Clashing with other Groups:

Lucy Davis to be asked to produce a list of venues for meetings throughout the district and to ensure that there is not a clash with other groups.

Issue 6: Tourist Opinions:

Canvassing tourists around the harbour the following Saturday the 29th June 2013 was suggested.

Issue 7: Trenwith Car/Coach Park:

It was agreed that on the 15th and 18th August between 10am and noon vehicles being counted entering this car park noting whether they came from a Carbis Bay or Halsetown direction>

Issue 8: Budget: Not Required.

Date of Next Meeting: 11th September 2013 with venue to be arranged (now arranged in the Council Chamber of the Guildhall).
